FOLLOW THE FLAG.

When our soldiers went to Cuba and the Philippines health was the most important consideration. Willis T. Morgan, retired Commissary Sergeant, U. S. A., of Rural Route 1, Concord, N. H., says: "I was two years in Cuba and two years in the Philippines, and being subject to colds, I took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, which kept me in perfect health. And now, in New Hampshire, we find it the best medicine in the world for coughs, colds, bronchial troubles and all lung diseases." Guaranteed at all druggists. Price 50c and $1. Trial bottle free.

CHEAP POSTAGE, SURE PROFITS ARE PROM- ISED.

The following novel proposition has been made to the Postal Commission:

To turn over the postoffice business to a $50,000,000 private corporation under full Government regulation.

To reduce by one-half all postal rates, establish rural postal express and apply business methods throughout.

To place the Government rental for postoffice quarters, and charge it regular rates for its postal business.

To place in charge a well-known railroad traffic expert to whom the place has been offered at $30,000 annually.

To eliminate all sinecures, politics, and the deficit.

To pay the Government all profits above 7 per cent. on capital.—Proposition of W. D. Boyce, of Chicago.

DEADLY SERPENT BITS.

Are as common in India as are stomach and liver disorders with us. For the latter, however, there is a sure remedy: Electric Bitters, the great restorative medicine, of which S. A. Brown, of Bennettsville, S. C., says: "They restored my wife to perfect health, after years of suffering with dyspepsia and a chronically torpid liver." Electric Bitters cure chills and fever, malaria, biliousness, lame back, kidney troubles and bladder disorders. Sold on guarantee by all druggists. Price 50c.

OFFICERS OF UNITED DAUGHTERS OF CON- FEDERACY.

Jos. H. Lewis Chapter, U. D. C., has elected the following officers for the ensuing year:

President—Mrs. J. Alex. Grant.

First Vice President—Mrs. Loula B. Longmoor.

Second Vice President—Miss M. E. Harrison.

Third Vice President—Miss Lucy Pattie.

Corresponding Secretary—Miss Elizabeth Blanton.

Recording Secretary—Miss Lena Benton.

Historian—Mrs. Nellie Steadman Cox.

Treasurer—Mrs. E. L. Samuel.

The 100th anniversary of Gen. Robt. E. Lee's birthday will be celebrated by this chapter on January 19, by a suitable address, the orator at which has not yet been selected.

DEATH FROM LOCKJAW.

Never follows an injury dressed with Bucklen's Arnica Salve. Its antiseptic and healing properties prevent blood poisoning. Chas. Oswald, Merchant, of Rensselaersville, N. Y., writes: "It cured Seth Burch, of this place, of the ugliest sore on his neck I ever saw." Cures cuts, wounds, burns and sores. 25c. at all druggists.

ADDS NEW DEPARTMENT.

The big flour and feed store of Heise & Sons has added a new department to their big store. Hereafter they will purchase and handle country produce, fowls, eggs, butter, etc. They propose to pay the highest prices for every thing the farmers have to sell, and will, in return, sell them flour, meal, grain, provisions and seeds at the very lowest possible price. This is an enterprising firm and are building up a big business.

A city to be healthy must keep its sewer system in perfect order. To be well, you must keep the human sewerage system in perfect order, the only way Father William's Indian Tea or Herb Tablets. 25 doses for 20c. Come in and try a box and be convinced. Frankfort Drug Co., Druggists.

ANOTHER PRECINCT HEARD FROM.

We recently made mention of cherry trees being in bloom for the second time in this county, this year, and now comes the information that a pear tree in the yard of Capt. I. T. West, opposite our office, on Main street, not only has bloomed the second time, but that a crop of pears were growing upon the tree when the freeze struck it.

THE RECTIFIERS UP AGAINST IT GOOD AND HARD.

A recent order from the Commissioner of Internal Revenue has given the rectifiers the "back ache," and they have been asking a number of questions as to the order, and collectors have referred these questions to the Commissioner for an answer.

"This office is in receipt of your letter of the 15th instant, in which you refer to Circular 482, directing collectors on or after January 1, 1907, to decline to issue a wholesale liquor dealers' stamp for use on any package not filled on the premises of a wholesale liquor dealer, or for use on any unbroken package bearing the marks, stamps and brands required by the law. You inquire whether this circular applies to a case where a duly qualified rectifier, wholesale and retail dealer, takes a package of rectified spirits just filled on his premises, immediately cuts the slip from the stamp for rectified spirits thereto attached, and makes application on Form 92 for a wholesale liquor dealers stamp to cover the same package with the proof slightly reduced, the difference or surplus quantity resulting from the reduction having been disposed of to himself for retail?"

"In reply, you are informed that said circular is held to apply to such a case. Collectors should refuse, on and after January 1 next, to issue a wholesale liquor dealer who is also a retail liquor dealer and who desires to dispose of spirits to himself at retail on book, Form 52, or he may be allowed to fill one or more packages containing not less than five gallons, wholesale liquor dealers stamps to cover such derived packages. The remnant, if any, of five wine gallons or more must also be covered by a wholesale liquor dealers stamp."

POSTMASTER ROBBED.

G. W. Fouts, Postmaster at Riverport, Ia., nearly lost his life and was robbed of all comfort, according to his letter, which says: "For 20 years I had chronic liver complaint, which led to such a severe case of jaundice that even my finger nails turned yellow; when my doctor prescribed Electric Bitters, which cured me and have kept me well for eleven years." Sure cure for Billiousness, Neuralgia, Weakness and all Stomach, Liver, Kidney and Bladder derangements. A wonderful Tonic. At all druggists. 50 cents.

UNEXPECTED.

A rather unexpected event happened in the Court of Appeals on Tuesday. Attorney W. C. Goad, of Scottsville, Allen county, was arguing a case before that Court when he was attacked with angina pectoris, and fell to the floor. Mr. Goad was taken to the Capital Hotel where Dr. C. A. Fish rendered medical assistance and Mr. Goad made comfortable.

DON'T FORGET.

We hope the teachers of this county will not forget that Prof. R. N. Roark, President of the Eastern Kentucky State Normal School, will deliver an address in the interest of that institution at the Y. M. C. A. Rooms this (Saturday) morning at 10:30 o'clock. It is earnestly desired by County Superintendent Jones that there be a full attendance.

Catarrh of the nose and throat should lead you to at least ask for a free trial box of Dr. Shoop's Catarrh Cure. Nothing so surely proves merit as a real, actual test—and Dr. Shoop, to prove this, earnestly desires that we let you make the test. This creamy, Snow White healing balm, soothes the throat and nostrils, and quickly purifies a foul or feverish breath. Call and investigate. All dealers.

Farmers

[Written for the Roundabout.]
ACROSS FENCES—COUNTRY LIFE.

The December morning was beautiful. Jack Frost, taking advantage of the moonlight, made his pencil do mighty work, and the fairy landscape repeated the story of a woderland hidden somewhere in the country, known only to the fairies and the little people. The boys had been sent over to "Uncle Ephies" for a small hammer, and I went down the pike as far as the avenue gate, and there found my friend, the rock-breaker, with whom I entered into a pleasant morning talk, the sounds of the distant echoes ringing a welcoming carol.

"I knowed yer father, madam, when loife wuz worth more than 'tis ter day. His grist mill, run by a water wheel, wuz one of ther bes' in ther country, an' I allers went with pap an' the other men who carried grain ter mill. My home wuz then down on 'Flat Creek,' where I lived 'till pap an' mammy died. Yer father, madam, wuz a honest gentelma!"

I thanked him most sincerely for the commendation of one, who long since dead, was well worthy of his praise, and asked him to tell me something of his life—as he knew him in those lost days of happiness.

"Mr. S— wuz a early settler in ther country. Woods wuz every whar. He cum from Georgetown, an' 'bought' ther old mill site from ther kins of Kendall, on ther ol' Elkhorn. Hard work that, madam! If yer pap had-en-ter had grit in his system he could-en-ter stood hit. Walkin' thru his home in Scott county every Monday mornin' walkin' back every Saturday night. Workin' ter make er home far his family. I knowed yer ma, too. She once tole me how she felt when she first seen ther Elkhorn cliffs beyont ther mill. She rode a horse-back with yer little baby sister in her arm. Ther ol' black mammy rode a nuther horse. Yer pap ridin' on befo' as a pilot. She said: 'She thought hit wuz ther end of ther wurl an' her po' baby wud never see no person nor anything.' But we all saw a new thing when yer papa bilt a town, and a new mill, making paper by han' an' employin' many hanter work. Sorry ther day that a stranger lives in ther ol' home, and ther loved ones sleep on ther green hillside. I sorry with yer, madam," and he lifted his hat as I brushed away my tears.

"Come up, sometime, Mr. Chambers, when yer can, and tell me more of the past. It is always a pleasant story to me, and as you have had so much experience in rock and stone-breaking, please tell me what your experiences have been."

I sat down on a stone by the roadside while he lighted his pipe to smoke. It was a new revelation; with the sunshine falling all about us, and the swift beat of other rock-hammers echoing down the silence.

"Hits been er long time, Miss Nell, since I first began ter pay attention ter things common as rock. In fact, all uv us goes erbout each day's livin', havin' eyes—as ther Book says—"an' seein' not," but bein' so alone an' po', ther Judge thought that I might work out my days in peekin' rock fur ther benefit of ther people at large, and ther ol' man in partickler. An' so believin' he or ther court giv' me ther job, I haint bin here long."

"Rock is er strange companion. Yergits 'customed ter handlin' hit after long 'quaintance, but hit wont bear no familiarity. Som' times hit will break at ther least touch uv ther hammer, an' ten agin hit won't break at all. Just hev ter thro' hit aside fur ther crusher when hit cums erlong. Minds me uv folks, sootherted an' friendly, others hardhearted and oneivil. Ther quarry, too, is a quare place ter

'vestigate, an' ther 'home groupin' uv them stratus is somthin' amazin'. These here-stones, we've bin usin', cum from an' ol' quarry dug up in ther years gone by by ther heirs of Squire B—. They are full growed rock, heavy with ore, an' strange ter say, among ther bushes used ther oldest has ther strongest blast.

"Kaintucky is noted fur hits limestone, which, in Franklin county, is harder than in Woodford, Scott or Bourbon. In ther purpos' uv God, who created ther earth, this part of His Kingdom is ther garden spot, an' while ther blue of sky is overhed, an' ther bluegrass under foot, that is under hit all a vast foundation of stone, remarkable fur holdin' moisture, givin' health, strength, an' virtue ter every growin' thing. Crumblin' after frost ter prepare fur seed-sowin' grainin' after plantin' so as ther soil will receive rain. Hardnin' after plowin' ter keep in ther sunshine's warmth an' light. Farmers call hit soil, but way down deep in God's great storehouse ther rock is ther real foundation. No wonder that Bible man wuz saved when his house wuz built upon a rock.

"I count over my blessins as I peek rock, an' believe hit or not, ther very effort made ter break ther will uv ther hard material gives ter me strength uv purpose in bendin' my own ter His will. Yes, mam, God is in everything. Glad yer cum ter day. I hope yer'll cum agin."

Going slowly over the slight elevation—back to "Elmwood"—I gathered many sparkling bits of stone from the wall built along the pike. Every color of the rainbow was in the depths, and I learned afterward that this rock came from the same quarry of which the breaker of stone had spoken. A vein of gold-bearing quartz ran along this way. Workmen digging a cistern in the neighborhood brought to light a "pocket" of the precious ore from which (found nugget) a ring was made. Evidence of coal, iron, zinc and lead were on every hand, while across fences environed by a grove of trees, stood a primitive church house. It reminded me of stories I had read of quaint old-fashioned buildings in New England, where the gospel was preached in the simplicity of its perfect faith, and the fathers said: "Yea and nay." The doors were open and I entered. Not a soul was present, in the solemn service of an individual worshiper, save one—a youth whose being there was suggestive of cleaning day. He gave me a welcoming smile that did my very soul good, and answered every question, at once, with evident pleasure. "Yes, this was a Christian church of Baptist faith and doctrine." Old in erection, Built before his knowledge of events. It was filled with sacred and precious memories, and to him, the "summum bonum" of life, as it held his father's body in the sward of its bluegrass and his mother's name on the church roll.

What annals of respect! What a chronicle of fame! Better far than the wealth of 'Wall Street,' or the mansuolom of India. "There would be meetin' day next Saturday. Would I come?" Accepting his invitation with a grateful acknowledgment, I watched him in his duties as a keeper of the Temple. The carpet was well swept; the lamps lighted; the pews dusted, and, as he locked the doors, putting the keys in his pocket, I inquired his name.

It was Sandy, a good ensample of that other child whose mother gave him to the Lord in his youth. We talked of Samuel as we wended our way, and Sandy heard the story in its true significance with attentive ear and clear shining eyes.

Not a mute inglorious Milton, But with purpose and resolve in every way, To light the lamps of God.

SCHOOL CHILDREN'S AID

Asked in Erection of Kentucky's Port of Boonesboro at Jamestown.

Every school boy and girl in the State is invited to assist in commemorating two historic events by the erection of a Kentucky Building at the Jamestown Exposition which will be held next year at Norfolk, Va. Prof. J. H. Fuqua, Superintendent of Public Instruction for Kentucky, and Director of Educational Exhibits on the Kentucky Jamestown Exposition Commission, has asked every teacher in the State to set aside Wednesday, December 12, as "Jamestown and Boonesboro Day." The teachers are requested to devote an hour or more on that day to instruction bearing on the first English settlement in the territory now comprised in the United States and on history connected with the erection of his unique fort by Daniel Boone near the present site of Boonesboro, Ky., in April, 1775. Prof. Fuqua suggests that the scholars be called on for compositions in connection with these subjects and that readings from history be held in the schools.

Each teacher in the State has received a letter from the Superintendent of Public Instruction, asking that the pupils be requested to bring to school on "Jamestown and Boonesboro Day" one or more pennies, according to school age, which will be forwarded to the Commission and will go into a special fund devoted exclusively to the erection of a replica of the Port of Boonesboro as a Kentucky Building at Jamestown. Children under five years of age (in the kindergarten) are asked to contribute 1 cent each; pupils between 5 and 9 years of age are asked to contribute 2 cents each; those between 10 and 14 years, 3 cents each; those between 15 and 20, 4 cents each; pupils above 21 years of age, 5 cents each.

One of the unique features associated with the movement is that permitting no pupil to contribute a larger sum than is called for by his or her school age. The pupil may, however, contribute additional pennies in the name of some other pupil who is unable to make his own little subscription to the fund. In his letter to the teachers, Prof. Fuqua says in part:

"Because of the historic interest in the event to be commemorated and by reason of the unique building Kentucky will have, we want the school pupils of the State to be identified with the movement and through the aid of superintendents and teachers have every one of them add his mite to the fund. Though the sum given by each pupil is small, an amount that can be spared without hardship by every family with children of school age in the State, yet the total amount received in this manner will be a handsome one, and should prove—devoted as it will be to so laudable an undertaking—a monument of enduring fame to the school children of Kentucky."

TO OUR SUBSCRIBERS.

In a short time we will begin sending out our bills for subscription to the ROUNDABOUT.

We trust that our patrons will take time by the forelock and will pay up their arrearages before these reminders are sent to them.

There are a number of our patrons who owe us two or more years subscription, and, while these may be small sums to them, the aggregate to us amounts to quite respectable figures.

We do not wish to discontinue any subscription, but those who owe and will not pay, after a reasonable time, will have to be cut off.

TOBACCO RAISERS ORGANIZE.

The tobacco raisers of this county held a meeting at the Courthouse, on Saturday last, and organized with a view to controlling the prices of tobacco.

Another meeting was held, on Monday last, which was addressed by any number of gentlemen interested in the matter, who explained the objects of the organization and secured a number of signs of membership cards.

Under proper safeguards this organization can accomplish great good, but, while its object is to obtain better prices for their products than can be, under the present circumstances (the market, it is alleged, being controlled by the tobacco trust), they must

For Thin Babies

Fat is of great account to a baby; that is why babies are fat. If your baby is scrawny, Scott's Emulsion is what he wants. The healthy baby stores as fat what it does not need immediately for bone and muscle. Fat babies are happy; they do not cry; they are rich; their fat is laid up for time of need. They are happy because they are comfortable. The fat surrounds their little nerves and cushions them. When they are scrawny those nerves are hurt at every ungentle touch. They delight in Scott's Emulsion. It is as sweet as wholesome to them.

Excess

Of Smoking Affected My Heart

So I Had To Sit Up To Breathe.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure Cured Me.

There is nothing that has a more deleterious effect upon the cardiac or heart nerves than the excessive use of tobacco. Pain and tenderness around the heart, an oppressive feeling in the chest, choking sensation in the throat, discomfort from sleeping on the left side and smothering spells at night when the sufferer has to sit up in bed to breathe are the most common symptoms of a weak heart. Smokers who feel these symptoms and who do not understand their meaning should be warned in time, by the following experience: "I was greatly troubled with an affection of the heart, due I think to excessive smoking. On writing to you for advice I was directed to begin a course of treatment which included Dr. Miles' Heart Cure, Dr. Miles' Nerve and Nerve and Liver Pills, together with bathing, etc. I faithfully followed the directions given and am pleased to say that my cure is complete and permanent. Before beginning the use of your remedies I was so nervous I could not keep my hands still and suffered greatly from severe pains around the heart. Many times at night I would be forced to assume a sitting posture to get my breath, and for the time being it would seem as though my heart had stopped beating. From the splendid results achieved in my case I can cheerfully recommend Dr. Miles' Heart Cure, Restorative Nerve and other remedies to all sufferers from heart or nervous troubles."—Yours truly, ELLIOTT HALL, Dothan, Ala.

ELKS' LODGE OF SORROW.

On Sunday afternoon Frankfort Lodge, No. 580, B. P. O. Elks, held its annual Lodge of Sorrow, at the Capital Opera House, at 8 o'clock p. m.

The members marched in a body from the Elks Home and took the reserved seats kept for them in the Hall.

There was a very large attendance of citizens—ladies and gentlemen—much larger than has ever before been present.

Judge John H. Weathers, of New Albany, Ind., was the orator of the day, and his oration was a finished production, viewed from every standpoint.

Beautiful and appropriate music was rendered, both before and after the address, the Frankfort Glee Club, under the management of Prof. R. V. Stratton, being the leading feature. Solos by Mrs. N. Lindsay South and Mr. J. M. VanDerveer, were especially tender and appropriate, being greatly admired by the big audience.

The Best Guaranty of Merit Is Open Publicity.

Every bottle of Dr. Pierce's world-famed medicines leaving the great laboratory at Buffalo, N. Y., has printed upon its wrapper all the ingredients entering into its composition. This fact alone places Dr. Pierce's Family Medicines in a class all by themselves. They cannot be classed with patent or secret medicines because they are neither. This is why so many unprejudiced physicians prescribe them and recommend them to their patients. They know what they are composed of, and that the ingredients are those endorsed by the most eminent medical authorities.

The further fact that neither Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, the great stomach tonic, liver invigorator, heart regulator and blood purifier, nor his "Favorite Prescription" for weak, overworked, broken-down, nervous women, contains any alcohol, also entitles them to a place all by themselves.

Many years ago, Dr. Pierce discovered that chemically pure glycerine, of proper strength, is a better solvent and preservative of the medicinal principles residing in our indigenous, or native medicinal plants than is alcohol, and furthermore, that it possesses valuable medicinal properties of its own, being demulcent, nutritive, antiseptic, and a most efficient anodyne.

Neither of the above medicines contains alcohol, or any harmful, habit-forming drug, as will be seen from a glance at the formula printed on each bottle wrapper. They are safe to use and potent to cure.

Not only do physicians prescribe the above, non-secret medicines largely, but the most intelligent people employ them—people who would not think of using the ordinary patent or secret medicines. Every ingredient entering into the composition of Dr. Pierce's medicines has the strongest kind of an endorsement from leading medical writers of several schools of practice. No other medicines put up for like purposes has any such authoritative endorsement.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation. Constipation is the cause of many diseases. Cure the cause and you cure the disease. One "Pile" is a gentle laxative, and two mild cathartics. Druggists sell them, and saying is "just as good." Easy to take and candy.

The Frankfort Coal Trust may be said to consist of the two elevator companies. They control the market. They control the price. Coal is cheaper by barge than by rail. The small dealers, who are supplied by rail are, therefore, at the mercy of the elevator folks. When the latter raise the price, the small dealer must acquiesce and duplicate the raise, or they may be squeezed out by the elevator folks selling at cost. There is no excuse for coal selling at 16 cents per bushel. The coal sold at that price costs no more than coal sold at 12 cents. At 16 cents, the dealers are, no doubt, doubling their money. They are equalizing from the citizens on the smaller profit they get from the distilleries, the penitentiary, the power house, waterworks, etc.

There is only one way to meet the unnecessary burdens imposed by the Frankfort Coal Trust. Combine and buy your coal in car load lots, and haul it out, load and load alike, dividing the excess above unequal portions. It can be done. Coal will then cost you less than 16 cents per bushel. Dealers say the citizens put up less coal than usual last summer. Hence, probably the squeeze.

Col. John has a dog. He's a loving dog. He's a smart dog. No alarm clock necessary where that dog is. Only notify him what hour you wish to get up, and he'll wake you promptly. Never misses.

John's dog does not adore cats, nor do the cats prefer his society.

They prefer a tree or fence when the dog goes out for a walk.

Thanksgiving day, John took his dog out for a holiday saunter. They sauntered down St. Clair street. The dog showed great delight—acted as if he knew everybody and everybody knew him.

They reached the new bake-shop. John went in to buy a roll. The dog was requested to stand at the door. He stood. He didn't even look in to see the beautiful things inside—for instance, the large plate glass display case that reached half across the room and came down to the floor in the back part of the store—and behind which reposed pyramids and fancy work, shelf on shelf of pies, cakes, candies, china dolls, popcorn balls, and other gimcracks. All this was lost on the dog, for he was outside.

Everything was serene. Unhappily, a sweet little girl opened the door and entered the shop. The house cat, who happened to be coming from a tea party, also entered. The dog sprang to welcome her home. He was too forcible in his style of welcome. The cat spit and snarled a defiant anathema and fled down the room. The dog, oblivious to surroundings, followed like a cyclone.

But the cat knew the ropes. Reaching the glass case, it turned quickly aside into a secret way. The dog supposed it had gone through the glass. He was a proud dog. He felt able to do whatever the cat could do. He plunged onward. There was a crash. Glass, pies, cakes and dolls fell over and around the dog. He was sandwiched with sweetness. The shop girl, at the crash, fell from the stool near the case. The sales woman raised her hands in horror. The baker ran in from the bakery. But the dog, extricating himself, came up to John, smiling and wagging his tail, and saying plainly in dog language, "Didn't I play h—l with that cat." John responded, briefly, "Yes, but you have played h—l with me." John measured the situation. "Send me the bill," said he, and he paid it. He thinks more of the dog than ever. Thinks him a very dear dog. But only wants one.

The majority favor such an organization, but some say that if it is wrong to form a Tobacco Trust among the manufacturers, it is equally wrong to form a Growers Trust. Which is right, we leave them to settle.

PAIN

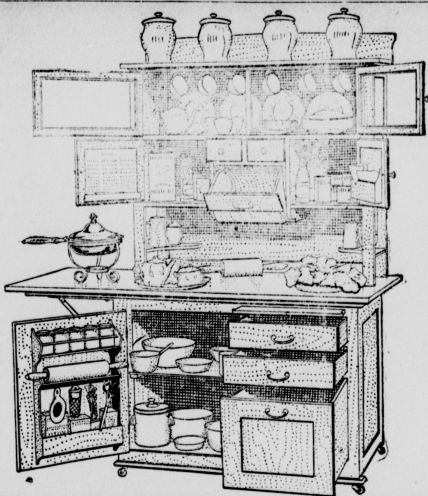

Pain in the head—pain anywhere, has its cause. Pain is congested, pain is blood pressure—nothing else usually. As he said, says Dr. Shoop, and to prove it he has created a little pink tablet. That tablet—called Dr. Shoop's Headache Tablets—coaxes blood pressure away from pain centers. Its effect is charming, pleasantly delightful, gently, though safely, it surely equalizes the blood circulation.

If you have a headache, it's blood pressure. If it's painful pressure with women, same cause. If you are sleepless, restless, nervous, it's blood congestion—blood pressure. That surely is a certainty, for Dr. Shoop's Headache Tablets stop it in 20 minutes, and the tablets simply distribute the unnatural blood pressure.

Brush your finger, and doesn't it get red, and swell, and pain you? Of course it does. It's congestion, blood pressure. You'll find it where it pain is—always. It's simply Common Sense.

If you suffer from backache, There is only one way to cure it. The perfect way is to cure the kidneys.

A bad back means sick kidneys. Neglect it, urinary troubles follow.

Doan's Kidney Pills are made for kidneys only.

Are endorsed by Frankfort people.

Mrs. Lou Johnson, of 825 Todd street, says: "Oft and on far a good many years I have suffered with a heavy, dull aching pain over the kidneys and across the small of my back, the pain running up my spine and becoming very severe on the least exertion. There was also a weakness of the kidneys which produced an irregular, scalding and excessive condition. I was treated by doctors, and it seemed as if medicine did not act on me. My condition became so serious that I realized the necessity of some immediate relief. About this time a neighbor spoke so highly of Doan's Kidney Pills that I could not believe but they had some merit. My daughter procured a box for me at J. W. Gayle's drug store, and after giving the remedy a good fair trial I can now conscientiously give my good recommendation and endorsement of what I consider a grand kidney remedy. Doan's Pills certainly carry out the claims made for them."

In the local option election, held on Thursday, in the city of Somerset, the "drys" won by 131 majority. The balance of the county of Pulaski was already dry and this makes the whole county dry.

SATURDAY EVENING'S BLAZE.

An alarm from box 24, at 5:40 o'clock on Saturday evening, called the department to the two-story frame residence of Nancy Clay, colored, on Hill street, where a big blaze, which had a good start before the alarm was turned in, soon demolished the roof, but the fire-boys had it under control quickly and that was about all the damage done except by water. Loss about $500.

MEETING OF WOMAN'S CLUB

The Woman's Club will meet at the residence of Mrs. E. L. Samuel on Monday, December the 10th, at half past three o'clock.

The Travelling Art Gallery sent out by the General Federation of Woman's Clubs will be in Frankfort next week. These pictures will be shown on two afternoons in one of the rooms in the new addition of the city school, and the public are most cordially invited to see them. This collection is loaned by artists of New York, Chicago, Boston and other cities, and is said to be very fine. The Club hopes that many will enjoy this unusual opportunity to see good specimens of representative American Art. The dates of the exhibit will be announced in the daily papers. The pictures are for sale.

RUNAWAY THURSDAY.

The double team of horses hitched to the dairy wagon of Mr. A. Beck became frightened, on Thursday afternoon, and dashed down St. Clair street towards the bridge. Luckily, however, the team was stopped before any serious damage was done by or to the team.

BIRTHS.

GARRETT—In this city, on Thursday, to Dr. Nevill M. Garrett and wife—a son.

JUST AS WE EXPECTED.

In answer to a query from the Associated Press, Justice John M. Harlan, of the U. S. Supreme Court, announced, on Wednesday, that he had no intention whatever of entering the race for the Republican nomination for Governor.

Judge Harlan is a grand man and would make an ideal Governor, but he has had higher honors than could come from being Governor of Kentucky or any other State.

PEA RIDGE.

Mrs. Chambers and children were the guests of Mrs. Jennie Tracey Sunday.

Miss Norma Beagan is the guest of her uncle, Mr. Taylor Collins.

Mrs. Mattie Clipper gave a most delightful social to the young people of Chatteville and vicinity. It was a most charming affair, and all the young folks are looking forward to another.

Services at Chatteville Sunday at the Christian Church. As this will probably be Bro. Florence's farewell sermon every one should try to be there. We, with many others, are sorry that he is not going to stay with us another year.

Mr. J. A. Edge, of Lexington, was the guest of his parents Thanksgiving Day.

Mr. and Mrs. Laceyfield, of Benson, were also the guests of Mrs. T. Edge Thanksgiving.

Mr. Will Wilson, of Frankfort, also was the guest of the Edge family that day.

Pea Ridge School will be closed on the 14th of this month and all the little ones are busy with their speeches for the closing exercises. While some of the children will be glad of their freedom from school, all will be sorry to part with their pleasant young teacher, Miss Josephine Moore, and that she will be happy in her succeeding position is the sincere wish of all who know her.

Moving and tumors of moving are beginning to stir in the cool breeze and are likely to continue until after the 10th of next March.

Quite a number of Frankfort well-known people were out hunting Thanksgiving Day.

Mrs. L. Edge and daughter, Edith, and Mrs. Laceyfield, were the guests of Mrs. Winifred Laceyfield, at Benson, this week.

Mr. Ben Tracey had the misfortune to lose a very nice horse. He has our sympathy. It is so difficult to get a real satisfactory animal.

Mr. Will Bodkin's little baby who has been so ill, is improving, and all hope he will soon be well.

SPLENDID MEETING.

Fine Audiences and Large Number of Additions to Church.

The services of revival meetings, which have been in progress at the First Baptist Church, of this city, for the last twelve or fourteen days, have been remarkable for the deep solemnity that has characterized them, at the same time the freedom from all sensationalism and excitement.

The sermons, afternoon and night, by Rev. J. T. Watts, of Louisville (who has just accepted a call to the Baptist Church at Ashland, Ky.), have been plain, practical, strong, earnest and tender, and have won for him the highest regard of the membership of the church and of the large audiences that have, right along, filled the big auditorium to repletion.

Up to the hour we write there have been 58 additions to the membership—the larger portion have been grown people—very few children having come in—something out of the usual order of things.

The ordinance of baptism has been administered at the evening service every evening, commencing with Wednesday.

Mr. Watts closed his service last night, being compelled to leave for his new field of labor. He has made a warm place in the affections of pastor and people by his manly and courageous treatment of the themes of man's lost and ruined condition out of Christ, and his tender presentation of the glad tidings of salvation, at the same time presenting the justice and the wrath of God against sin—not against the sinner.

The earnest benedictions of all Christians will attend Mr. Watts in his future ministry at the very important point to which he goes.

THE SECRET OF SUCCESS

"No, Sir! You cannot palm off any substitute on me. I've been using August Flower since I was a boy, and I'll have no other."

"Forty million bottles of August Flower sold in the United States alone since its introduction! And the demand for it is still growing. Isn't that a fine showing of success? Don't it prove that August Flower has had unflinching success in the cure of indigestion and dyspepsia—the worst enemies of health and happiness? Does it not afford the best evidence that August Flower is a sure specific for all stomach and intestinal disorders?—that it is the best of all liver regulators?"

"August Flower has a matchless record of over 35 years in curing the ailing millions of these distressing complaints."

"Two sizes, 25c and 75c. All druggists."

CYRIL SCOTT IN "THE PRINCE CHAP."

"The Prince Chap," exactly as presented by Manager W. N. Lawrence at the Madison Square and Weber's theatres, New York, with Cyril Scott as the star, will be seen at the Capital Theatre next Thursday evening, December 11, for one performance only. The two clever children, Helen Pullman and Edith Spence, as originally, will share in the performance of little Claudia, a particularly unique role in stageland, requiring as it does three different actresses for a complete portrayal of the character, graduating from childhood to womanhood. In Act I Claudia is five years old; in Act II she is eight and in Act III she has passed her eighteenth birthday. Here is novelty to commence with. The child interest has been voted superb, being the motif of a story that is replete with the sort of heart interest that is fascinating to every grade of playgoer. One of the critics in New York wrote that "The Prince Chap," from the last row in the gallery to the first of the orchestra, struck a chord of sympathy that won universal response. Those who saw "The Prince Chap," either in New York or on the road, the productions being identical, will need no urging to witness it again. It comes with all the promise of being a sincere success; the style of play that lives on its deserved popularity, requiring nothing but the opinion of those who have seen it to insure its welcome. Genuinely good plays are very scarce; here we are told is one of the scarce ones. In spite of all prejudice it has scored in London; it will run in the English capital a year, and it will require two extra companies to tour the English provinces. It is to be done in Paris, in Berlin, in Vienna, in Austria. Is this proof?

We can only have one company touring the United States and Canada. Contracts call for Cyril Scott and the original production, so the performance will be the equal of that witnessed on Broadway. It is often written of a star that he has scored the hit of his career in each succeeding part he plays. Cyril Scott may not have made the biggest success he is destined to make, but, according to Mr. Edward Peple, the author of "The Prince Chap," he has recreated the character of the artist he plays without regard for the hero of the novel as Mr. Peple sketched him, making him infinitely more attractive, more interesting and a man that the world of theatre-goers can not fail to admire and love.

Supporting Mr. Scott are such well known artists as Messrs. Wallace Erskine, Charles B. Wells, Donald Weldon, Duane Wagar, George Schaeffer, Misses Frances Neilson, Florence Connor, Mary Keogh, Edith Spence, Helen Pullman and Justina Wayne, and the original New York production coming direct from the Lyric Theatre, Cincinnati.

Seat sale opens Saturday morning at 7 o'clock. Prices, parquette, $1.50; dress circle, $1.00. First two rows balcony, $1.00; Gallery, 25c.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE.

Conceded by All Parties to be One of the Albest Ever Sent to Congress.

On Tuesday last President Roosevelt sent in his message to the short session of the 59th Congress.

It is quite a lengthy document, requiring two hours and a half for its reading.

It begins without any perfunctory introduction, and treats of all the subjects considered in a manly, straightforward way that commands the respect and admiration of everybody, whether in his own party or in that of the opposition.

At its conclusion the applause was spontaneous and overwhelming and from both sides of the House of Representatives.

Rarely has a President so fully met the views of men of his own party, and, at the same time, earned the approval of his opponents.

No subject was treated in a perfunctory way, but each and all were handled in a thoroughly and conscientious manner. There is no uncertain sound to any declaration.

There are some carping critics, of course, whom nothing that could be said by any living man would satisfy, but even these, not having the gall to try and convert the positions assumed, yet must cavil, and they assume a wise-acre air and assert that "the President is sermonizing." Let these carpers take heed and obey the truth as it is shown to be the truth.

CHRISTMAS

At the McClure Store.

The Holiday spirit Prevades the Entire McClure store.

Never have stocks been so large and selections so pleasing. We have used every exertion to make this Christmas at McClure's one to be long remembered, and the variety of beautiful, useful and unusual gifts are so large that gift buying here is a real pleasure, whether you wish an inexpensive remembrance or a luxurious gift for the friend for whom nothing can be too good. Note especially the unprecedented display of handsome Suit Cases and Bags, the extraordinary showing of fine Silk Umbrellas, the luxurious Smoking Jackets, and the really startling line of Ties and Mufflers.

Dress Suit Cases and Bags.

The leather goods store probably deserves first mention for the stocks of Bags, Dress Suit Cases and Trunks are really unusual in completeness and variety. From a sole leather Case at $5.00 up to the luxurious leather lined and fitted Case at $30.00, there is everything a traveler could desire and a handsome piece of traveler's goods is something every man or woman desires.

Smoking Jackets and Bath Robes.

Get a man in the habit of wearing these and he will remember the particular gift which starts him in the habit with more pleasure than any Christmas remembrance ever given him. And then the selection here from which to choose. Bath Robes, beginning at $4.00, Smoking Jackets at $5.00, and then up to $12.00. It will find a soft spot in the heart of that man sure.

Silk Handkerchiefs, Linen Handkerchiefs.

It's worth a trip to the McClure store just to see the colored Silk Handkerchiefs. Pattern after pattern here beginning at 25c and on up to $2.00, and each more striking than the other. Whatever you overlook don't fail to see these gorgeous Silk Handkerchiefs. Their splendid qualities in plain white silk so pleasing to many men, at from 25c to $1.50.

Then beautiful Sheer Linen Handkerchiefs at 25c, 35c and 50c, plain whites, initials and some beautiful colored patterns. Cambric initial Handkerchiefs at 15c. This Handkerchief stock is a wonder.

Slippers.

Rest for the tired feet after days work is over. The comfortable Slipper will bring a smile to the face of a man or woman lucky enough to receive a pair for Christmas. Leather and felt Slippers are here in great variety and all at moderate prices.

Magnificent Silk Umbrellas.

Umbrellas, always an important Christmas stock here, are this season given a showing worthy of a page talk in themselves. The real Christmas novelties begin at $3.00, at which price there is a wide range of sterling and gold plated and gun metal handles from which to select, and then right on up to $20.00. There are handles of stag, of sterling silver, of enamel, ending at the highest price with ivory handles, hand carved in Quaint, Japan, and having the finest silk covers. Don't fail to see these Umbrellas.

Ties and Mufflers.

Do you know that this furnishing goods store is the store of Central Kentucky for men's fixings? Well, it's a fact and the Ties and Mufflers selected for this holiday season are wonderful. You can't describe neckwear in an advertisement, but they are bewildering in profusion. Then the Mufflers, such rich silks are unusual—solid black, gray and white predominate in colors and they are all long and full enough to give the wearer ample protection. Ties, 25c to $2.00. Mufflers, 50c to $3.00.

Suspenders and Sox.

Holiday Suspenders in appropriate boxes, at 50c, $1.00 and $1.50. Fancy Sox which always come in right for Christmas at 25c and 50c.

Suits and Gloves.

Ever, know a man who had enough of either? Plain and pleated bosom Shirts here in novelties, especially suited for Christmas at $1.00 to $2.00. Special cape and mocha Gloves at $1.00. Townes at $2.00 and up, warm fur lined at $3.50 and $5.00.

CHRISTMAS NOVELTIES.

Now read this closely, for here is the greatest money saving opportunity we have ever been able to offer. Christmas novelties at 60c on the dollar, because carried over. Last Christmas our store was so crowded that we were unable to even unpack a great part of our holiday goods, so this season our store being even more crowded, we have fixed up a room upstairs with all those pretty things we could not show last season. They are just as fresh and perfect as if bought this season. A great part of them were not on display last season, but the McClure policy of absolutely fair dealing says, "mark them at very low figures just because carried over." Now that room upstairs is full of about as many pretty Christmas things as you ever saw. You have no idea of how many gifts there are, the price

JUST 60 PER CENT. OF THEIR VALUE.

And there is almost everything imaginable from a 25c Basket to a $15.00 Toilet Set, and every article at just 60 per cent. of its real value. Come early while the prettiest things are all here, and while you can shop in leisure not possible later on. Handsome Vases, Jardineres, Baskets, Toilet Sets, Manicure Sets, Mirrors, Medallions, Ink Stands, Paper Weights, Albums, Handkerchief Boxes, Glove Boxes, Picture Frames, Dolls.

R. K. McClure & Son.
